Marketing communications
All forms, every function

When you break it down, Envision Technology Marketing Group (ETMG for short) does quite a few things, all of which add up to one thing — highly effective marketing communications for some of the world's biggest technology companies. Without a doubt, that's what we do best.

In fact, at any given moment, some of the biggest names in technology are taking advantage of ETMG's 100 global specialists in a variety of disciplines, supported by savvy and experienced management teams.

So what kind of marketing communications do you need? If it's writing, editing, print, web, production, interactive media, design services, and project management — let's talk. Because we do that.

My role as a team member :
Responsible for upholding corporate brand guidelines either using a template or creating an original layout

Technical illustrations using Adobe Illustrator / Photoshop

Preparing final files for offset /digital printing

Event Production and Design

I started with a raw Word file and a Brand Guide.

SINET was on a tight deadline and edits were fast and furious.

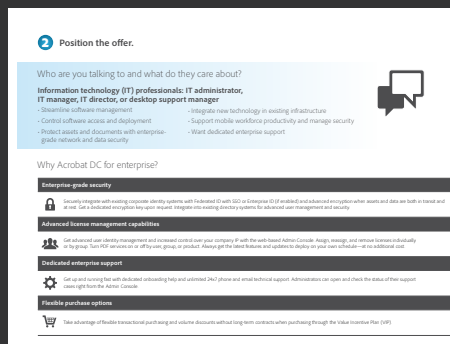

This document was re-paginated several times before going to print.

Production, Design, and Illustrations for IXIA

I had a client provided template and guidelines to follow for this piece. I created everything you see in the guide including illustrations. This was printed and I provided a final PDF with crops and bleeds.

COMunity: Country Offices and Headquarters now closer than ever

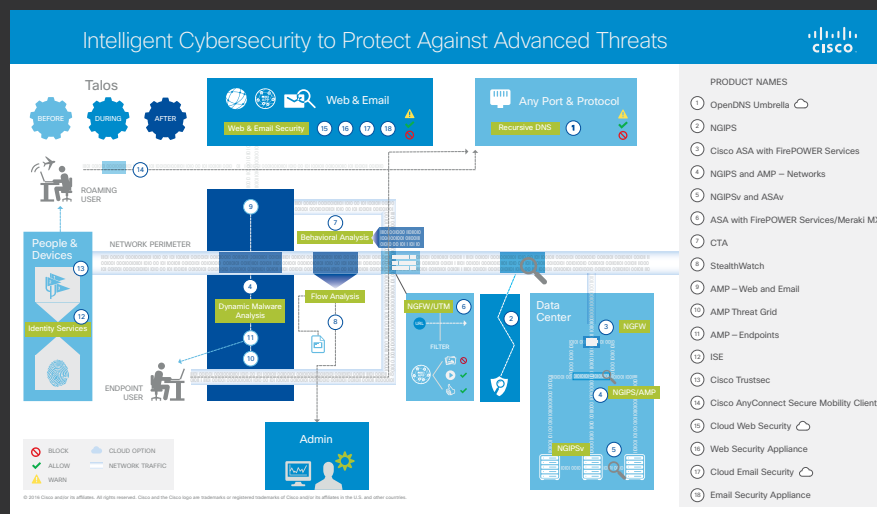

In Spring 2010, IDB Headquarters is implementing a new telephony system to better support the Bank's business.

The Results

COMunity will allow for improved, easier communications between our Country Offices and Headquarters, including:

- Dialing colleagues in Country Offices through a direct extension number
- Phone calls with a single click from your computer
- Instant messaging capability
- Sharing your desktop to work on joint documents
- Access to voicemail from your computer

Before and After

Click here to see the complete set of before and after documents.

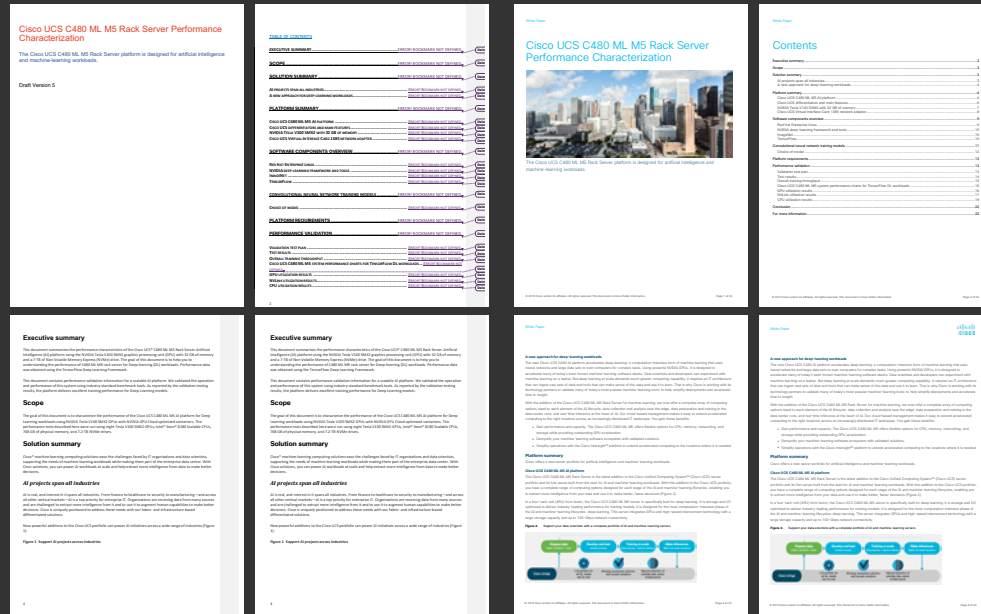

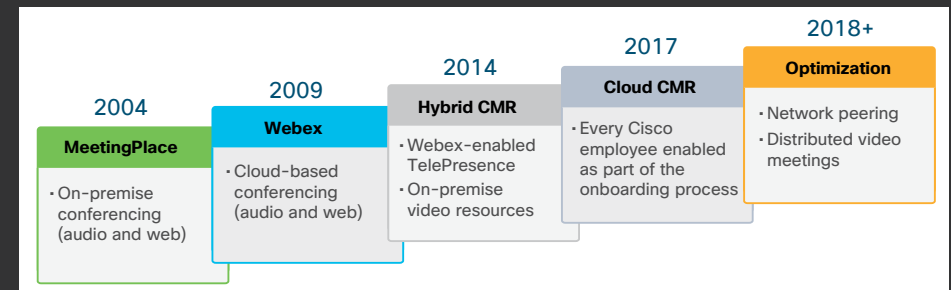

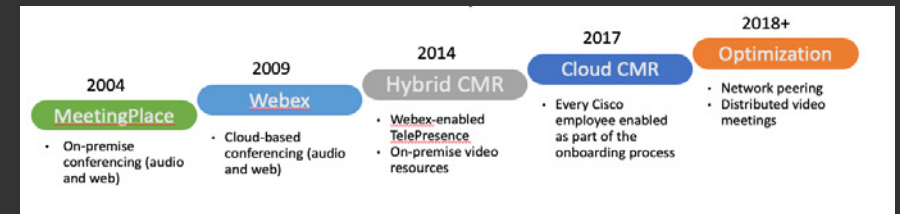

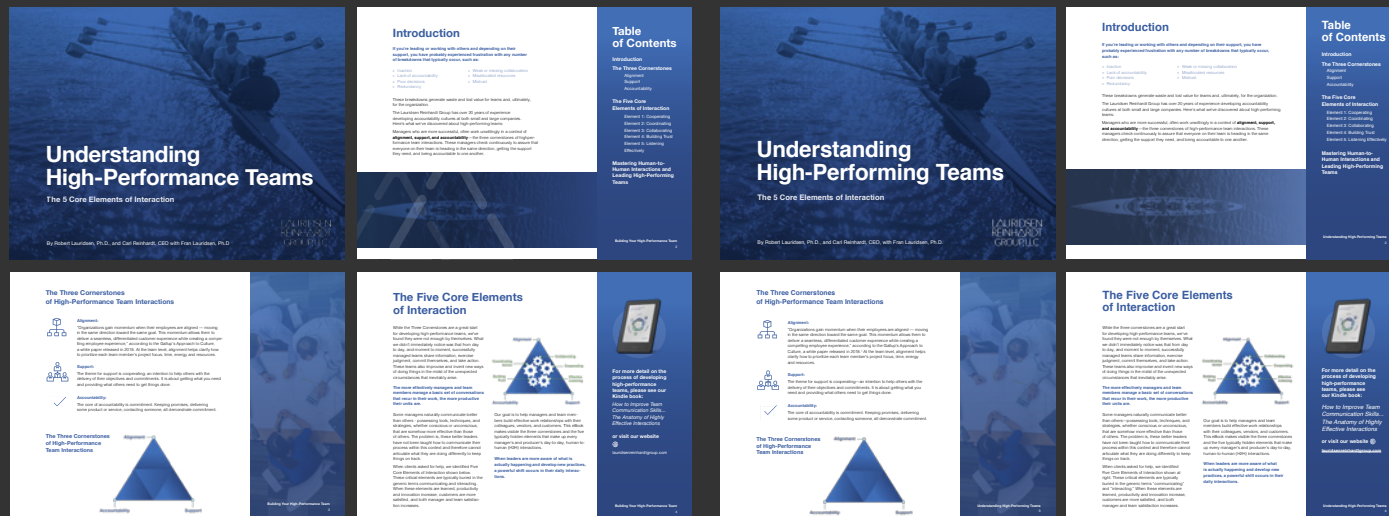

Illustration done in Illustrator. Before is on top and after is below.

This document was provided to me in Word and the layout was to be done in an existing Word template. Final deliverable was the Word document and the PDF with the hyperlinks in working condition.

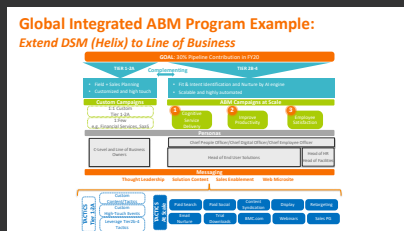

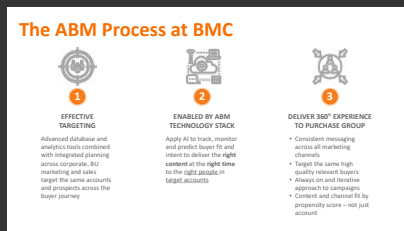

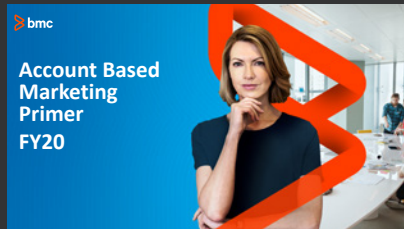

This document was originally created overseas. I was provided the layout in InDesign and asked to clean up and input over 100 edits that were provided as comments in the PDF.

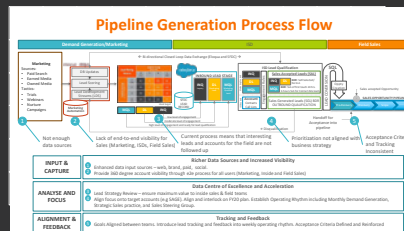

Before and After

Before...

Traditional Demand Generation vs ABM
Precision Targeting with Advanced Technology
Goals	Traditional Demand Generation	New ABM Approach
Account Identification	Limited information	Near real-time, iterative insight based account selection and prioritization
Contacts	May include irrelevant buyers or miss relevant influencers	Target the right personas in the purchase group
Campaign Targeting	Target contacts based on historical interests	Target across buying centers in accounts in the market for solutions
Success Metrics	Linear, BIC style marketing sourced pipeline	Measure impact of holistic ABM approach on accounts

After...

This document was provided to me in Powerpoint and I was tasked with creating a printed booklet in InDesign.

This slide, titled 'THE TOTAL SOLUTION For the Independent Agency', lists various services and partners. It includes sections for National Incentives (PMSF), Business Insurance Advantage (BIA), MarketFinder, Training & Learning Center (TLC), Agency Foundation, Book Management/Profitability Standards, SIAA Marketing, and Insurance deals4u (ID4U). It also features logos for Strategic Partners like United Group Alliance and SIAA.

After...

This slide, titled 'THE TOTAL SOLUTION For the Independent Agency', provides a more detailed and organized overview of SIAA's offerings. It includes sections for National Incentives (PMSF), Business Insurance Advantage (BIA), MarketFinder, Training & Learning Center (TLC), Agency Foundation, Book Management/Profitability Standards, SIAA Marketing, and Insurance deals4u (ID4U). It also features logos for Strategic Partners like United Group Alliance and SIAA.

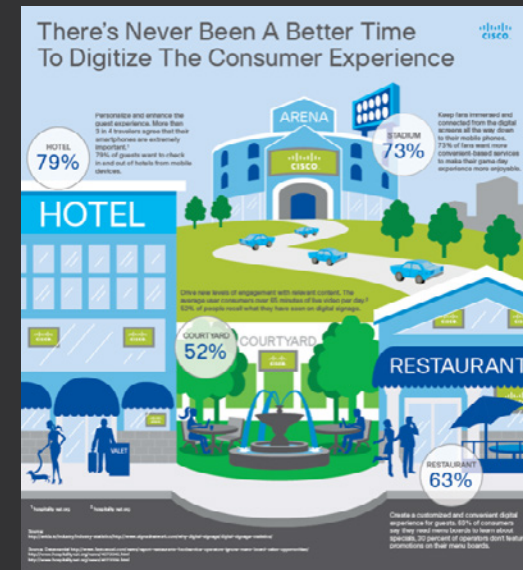

This slide, titled 'MAXIMIZE YOUR PROFIT' and 'PROVEN RESULTS', features a bar chart showing 'Total Written Premium' from 2013 to 2017, with a significant increase in 2017. It also includes a map of Ohio showing 'United Group & SIAA Member Agency Locations' and a list of '2017 Top Performers'.

This slide, titled 'MAXIMIZE YOUR PROFIT' and 'PROVEN RESULTS', features a bar chart showing 'Total Written Premium' from 2014 to 2018, with a significant increase in 2018. It also includes a map of Ohio showing 'United Group & SIAA Member Agency Locations' and a list of '2018 Top Performers'.

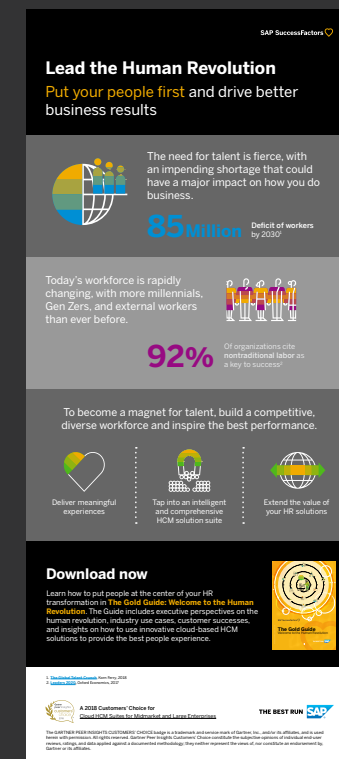

Infographics

Client provided text and I sourced icons and illustrations from Adobe stock due to time and budget constraints.

This was drawn in Illustrator.

This was put together with provided assets from the SAP Brand library.

HTML newsletters created in Dreamweaver. In some cases I save HTMLs out to Outlook and Mac email templates for clients to edit and send out from their own personal e-mails.

Prepare to Adopt

A team of knowledge awaits your team through SAP Learning Hub. And your role is key.

SAP Learning Hub offers users a wealth of training options, yet people can sometimes be slow to try out a new product. To ensure the way forward, we've made the Hub exceptionally easy to navigate and included plenty of introductory materials, tips, and resources for you to share. As hub administrator, you play a central role in motivating, encouraging, and supporting your team on the road to successful adoption.

Let's start with a snapshot of how adoption is proceeding. Our records show that out of the [00] SAP Learning Hub user licenses you purchased, [TV] have been activated for use. That's [Z2]%.
[continue here if it's good]
 You're off to a flying start – keep up the good work!

[continue here if it's poor]
 That's not bad... but let's do better. Don't be discouraged: full adoption can take some time and a little gentle coaxing. That's where you come in.

Be Proactive in Your Planning

Encourage learners to register

Write a short, upbeat e-mail to remind learners who haven't yet activated their hub membership to get ahead and do so to receive immediate access to engaging, innovative training on the SAP software they need to use every day, include the URL to the Redeem Activation Code page for their convenience. It's also helpful to post a registration reminder message to the group on your company's enterprise collaboration network.

First steps in SAP Learning Hub

Point your users to this resource page. It's the best starting place for newcomers, especially those who need a little guidance to get comfortable with a new tool. They can pick and choose bite-size video tours of hub features and options like SAP Learning Rooms, the SAP Live Access environment, and the SAP Global Certification program.

Quick start guide

Here's another great orientation resource: a one-page, at-a-glance guide explaining how to get started – and everywhere you go – with SAP Learning Hub. Download this PDF and send it to your user group as an e-mail attachment, or post it on your collaboration network. Better yet, do both!

Introductory Webinars and resource list

Every few weeks, we offer a live 45-minute introductory run-through of hub features and navigation. Point your users here and encourage them to register for this useful and informative Webinar. Also refer them to the bottom of the page for convenient links to the help center, the SAP Learning Hub welcome room, and our monthly newsletter.

Run Better Together

Administrator's checklist

Review this handy rundown of things you can do to ensure a successful rollout of the Hub. It's well worth a few minutes of your time.

Subscribe to active communication

We will continue to provide these e-mail communications at various milestones in your customer lifecycle. However, the cloud, including SAP Learning Hub, is a place of ongoing change and innovation. We encourage you to subscribe to these active communications to ensure you receive important updates and resources consistently. The newsletters also highlights live sessions with Subject Matter Experts in the SAP Learning Rooms – a great way to continue live micro learning.

Questions?

If you have any question or concerns, don't hesitate to reach out to us at e-learning@sap.com if you have any questions or concerns. We're here to help you in any way we can.
